DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 30, drawn to a machine configured to procurement orders, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
 - II. Claims 31-33, drawn to a software module for processing an order from a user, classified in class 707 subclass 10
 - III. Claims 34-40, drawn to a method for selecting advertisements for a user, classified in class 709, subclass 216.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires, among other things, criteria related to the user to determine if the at least one financial criteria meets a selected requirement. The subcombination has separate utility such as it can be used in alternative systems (POS, department stores, grocery stores, manufacturing).

Art Unit: 3624

3. Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires, among other things, examining the status of a loan associated with the user, and selecting an advertisement to present to the user based on at least the loan status and the networked site viewed by the user. The subcombination has separate utility such as it can be used in a variety of other systems such as banking, auctions, etc. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires, among other things, examining the status of a loan associated with the user, and selecting an advertisement to present to the user based on at least the loan status and the networked site viewed by the user. has separate utility such as it can be used in various alternative systems. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Group I: Fig. 8 as set forth by claims 1-18

Group II: Fig 10 as set forth by claims 19-29.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35

U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
